Up2Us Sports will have AmeriCorps members serve as coach-mentors to provide sports-based youth development mentoring in the Greater New Orleans area. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will ensure that 1,400 youth have been engaged in physical activity to reduce obesity and avoid negative behaviors like violence. In addition, the members will leverage an additional 20 volunteers who will be engaged in events like MLK Day. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas of Healthy Futures and Engaging Veterans.
